

PSYCHOLOGY MAJOR, CLINICAL/COUNSELING CONCENTRATION

Department of Psychology (<https://catalog.washcoll.edu/catalog/departments-programs/psychology/>)
Division of Natural Sciences and Mathematics

Concentration Advisor: Dr. Lauren Littlefield

This major prepares students interested in the helping professions and human services. Coursework provides students with a foundation for graduate work in counseling, school psychology, clinical psychology, and the allied health fields. Students are also prepared for entry-level positions in human resources, management, child care or school settings as well as work as clinical/counseling assistants or research assistants.
